EASTERN TURF TALK.

Of things interesting to eastern followers of the turf the New York Sun of Wednesday says:

That the racing never enjoyed such popularity in the history of the turf is shown by the annual report of Charles W. Anderson, state supervisor of racing accounts, to the state comptroller, which has just been made public. It covers all of the racing associations which operated during the past season in New York state under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, and shows that the state tax imposed on the tracks amounted to a total of $170,085.88, which is the record and is about 33 per cent. greater than the tax of a year ago, amounting to about $128,500. According to the law every racing association must pay a tax of 5 per cent. of the gross receipts from the spring and fall meetings, so that this year's tax, exclusive of Buffalo, represented a total of $3,339,217.80, as the gross receipts of the tracks at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend, Morris Park, Aqueduct, Brighton and Saratoga. According to Supervisor Anderson's report the various tracks were assessed as follows:

Buffalo .....	$ 3,124.99
Aqueduct .....	16,208.89
Saratoga .....	17,967.12
Westchester .....	28,558.94
Gravesend .....	38,069.73
Sheepshead Bay .....	41,009.20
Brighton .....	25,147.01
Total .....	$170,085.88

It will be seen that the Coney Island Jockey Club, operating at Sheepshead Bay, paid the largest tax, $41,009.20, which means $820,184 in gross receipts for thirty-two days, or an average of $25,630 per day. For the last four years this track has headed the list, with Gravesend usually second, Westchester third and Brighton fourth. The tax on the Buffalo track was covered by a bond company before the gates of Kenilworth Park were opened, so that the state was secured against loss. The entire sum will, by the provisions of the law, go to the agricultural societies of the state, including those conducting county and town fairs. It is a guarantee of the stability of racing, and is a compliment to the men who have so successfully controlled the sport of kings.

John E. Madden will probably have 100 thoroughbreds in training next year. Seventy-five or eighty of these are two-year-olds, and they will be reduced to about twenty for the eastern campaign, the best of the others to be placed on the western circuit. Madden has set his heart on winning the Futurity with a colt bred at Hamburg Place. He has already trained two Futurity winners, but he says he will not be satisfied until a youngster from his own breeding establishment has landed the big prize at Sheepshead Bay. Madden, by the way, declares that he is now buying, not selling, broodmares; that in future he will not dispose of any yearlings until they have been tried out. Owing to the increased number of mares at his establishment, he has withdrawn from the public for the season of 1903 the services of the stallions Mirthful, Plaudit, Sandringham, Jack Point and Ogden, all of which will be bred to mares owned by this shrewd turfman.

The agitation in favor of a racing law in Pennsylvania has reached such a point that it is confidently believed that a bill will pass the legislature. Already Philadelphians expect to see racing at two tracks near the Quaker City, Point Breeze and Joseph E.

Widener's new track at Ogontz. In all, there are five tracks in Pennsylvania which will, probably, be operated in case the bill is passed, and two of the tracks are located at Pittsburgh. There is considerable speculation in regard to the question of dates to be awarded by the proposed Pennsylvania Jockey Club. It has been suggested to the framers of the bill that the season should open on March 1 and close on November 30.

According to a report Volodyovski, which won the English Derby in 1901 in the colors of W. C. Whitney, will be taken this week to the stud at Theobalds by trainer John Huggins. Mr. Whitney's lease of the noted horse's running qualities, which he secured from Lady Meux, has expired.

It is said that Tod Sloan will not return to this country this winter after all. A friend of the former champion light-weight jockey says that Tod has practically given up all hope of ever riding again, as there seems to be no chance of re-instatement at the hands of the English Jockey Club.

Turfmen are almost a unit in predicting that Arthur Redfern, who will ride for Mr. W. C. Whitney, will easily be the star jockey in this country. Last season he had practically only Lucien Lyne to deal with and on many occasions he clearly outrode the Keene jockey. With Lyne on the other side it is confidently believed that Redfern will have things all his own way. The boy is taking care of himself this winter, even though he is at New Orleans, where he intends to ride steadily to keep his hand in. He will probably go to Aiken, S. C., in the early spring to handle some of Mr. Whitney's thoroughbreds, which are wintering there.

Mrs. L. Curtis, owner of the crack two-year-old filly Eugenia Burch, is spending the winter at New Orleans. She says that she will have eight two-year-olds in training next season, and expects to have a very useful stable. Mrs. Curtis, it will be recalled, paid $175 for Eugenia Burch as a yearling and the filly won $25,000 in stakes during the recent campaign.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

W. C. Whitney is making an experiment that is of interest to many prominent owners. He is wintering his entire racing stable at Aiken, S. C., where the climate is believed to be just suited to the training of thoroughbreds at this time of the year. It was last winter that the cream of Mr. Whitney's stable down on Long Island suffered from influenza, which carried off a number of valuable yearlings, and so completely crippled some of the older horses that they have never been able to run up to form. Convinced that to keep his horses on Long Island another winter would be in the nature of a severe handicap to success, Mr. Whitney concluded some time ago to try the southern climate of Aiken, and if his stable rounds into form and there is no sign of illness among the racers, it is probable that a number of prominent owners will send their horses to the same place. Mr. Whitney will be represented on the turf this year by a number of youngsters bred at his own establishment, La Belle farm. He has gradually built up a strong stud and expects in a year or two to profit largely by his investment. The stallions at La Belle include the celebrated Hamburg, Meddler, Yankee, Ballyhoo Bey, Lissak and Nasturtium, a high class lot. Mr. Whitney's two-year-olds last season did not pan out, the best of them being and Payne. But in the handicaps next season he will have Gunfire and Goldsmith, the former having shown an inclination to go a route and the latter, it is said, having recovered his two-year-old form. John W. Rogers will train Mr. Whitney's horses again and the riding will be done by Arthur Redfern and Tommy Burns.

The list of entries for the Lawrence Realization Stakes, to be run at Sheepshead Bay next June, has just been announced. In the lot are these notables: Lord of the Vale and Fire Eater, owned by August Belmont; John A. Drake's Savable, S. S. Brown's Blue Ribbon, P. J. Dwyer's Merry Acrobat, the Keenes' Rigodon, Clarion, Toboggan and Sir Launcelot; Julius Fleischmann's Wax Candle and St. Daniel, J. P. Kraner's Golden Maxim, J. E. Madden's Glassful, Dauphin and Bendemeer; Green B. Morris' Artvis and Gold Van, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Mexican, W. C. Whitney's Payne, James Galway's Meltonian, F. R. Hitchcock's Sergeant, C. R. Ellison's Skilful and J. B. Haggins' Sir Voorhies. For the $20,000 Tidal Stakes, to be run at Sheepshead Bay, too, the best of the nominations just announced are Mizzen, River Pirate, Blue Ribbon, Merry Acrobat, Maxnic, Meltonian, Athel, Sir Voorhies, Sergeant, Clarion, Tam O'Shanter, Toboggan, Palmist, Paget, Dauphin, Artvis, Gold Van, Payne, Judith Campbell and Mexican.

John E. McDonald has about decided to retire his stout old mare Belle of Troy, and in that event will, of course, send her to the Oakwood stud of his old friend C. F. McMeekin, in Kentucky. Whether he will breed her to one of the Oakwood sires—Bowling Brook or St. Florian—has not yet been decided upon. His own stallion, Rensselaer, by Hayden Edwards—The Belle, is also at Oakwood.

Rensselaer won races here, in England, and in Belgium, and retired sound. At Westchester he won the Pocantico and Jerome handicaps and Baychester Stakes, and at Saratoga the Travers Stakes. In England he won the Somersetshire Stakes, Wolverhampton Handicap, Eaton and Manor handicaps; Bestwood Plate at Nottingham, Queen's Plate at Derby, Park Plate at Lingfield, Queen's Plate and Welter Plate at Lincoln. Was second for the Great Metropolitan Stakes, Great Eboe Handicap, Great Yorkshire Handicap, Hurst Park Handicap, Beating Balsarroch (winner of the Cesarewitch), Carabine and other cracks. In Belgium he won the Ostend Grand Prize.

President Tom Williams has announced that the New California Jockey Club has assumed control of racing on the coast with the idea of keeping up the present value of purses and preventing syndicate betting. The latter evil, President Williams asserts, should be curbed at all hazards. Syndicate betting has predominated the rings at certain California tracks. It was when Joe Ullman and Kid Weller opened the "Big Store" at Saratoga and quoted independent prices that the "syndicate" was heard from. It has often been argued that the public would be better satisfied if layers acted independently of one another, thereby promoting a sort of business rivalry in the way of posting odds. If President Williams can suppress syndicate betting it is probable that other racing associations may take the matter into consideration. But it looks like a hard task, especially the east.—New York Exchange.

ST. LOUIS DERBY ELIGIBLES.

The St. Louis Derby of 1903 will rank among the leading three-year-old fixtures of the western turf, and with such good performers among the eligibles as Von Rouse, Au Revoir, Jack Young, Mallory, Captain Arnold, Henry McDaniel, St. Minor, Spencer Reif, Onatas, Gold Bell, Musidora, Lacy Crawford, Bad News and Sigmund, promises a contest as notable as that marked by the success of Otis this year. Declarations from this race are due January 1, an item of which owners should take notice. The conditions and present list of eligibles are here presented:

The St. Louis Derby—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds (foals of 1900); $25 each, or only $10 if declared January 1, 1903; $100 additional at start; $5,000 added, of which $1,000 to second, $500 to third, and the fourth to save its stake. A winner of a sweepstakes of $5,000 in 1903, or one of $5,000 in 1902, 3 lbs.; of one of $5,000, or three of any value in 1903, 5 lbs. extra; others, if non-winners of two sweepstakes of any value in 1903 allowed 3 lbs.; of one at any time, 4 lbs.; maidens, 5 lbs. additional. ### NOTES OF THE TURF.

The firm of Hatfield & Ownbey has been dissolved. Tom Ownbey last Thursday purchased the interests held by Hatfield in the horses Lady Alberta, Chickadee, Moabina, Carl Kahler, and Aurie B. The price paid was $4,000.

The noted race mare Lizzie McCarthy, by Iron—Lillie Hempstead, has changed hands. She was sold by Haley Bros. for a fair price to George Holloway, of Nicholasville, Ky. She is in foal to Jean Beraud.

Richard Croker has second call on the services of jockey "Skeets" Martin for the season of 1903 in England. Martin is engaged by W. C. Whitney for first call, and looks forward to a good season with the popular "light blue, brown cap" abroad.

Green B. Morris will not allow Sombrero to run in any more races this winter. The colt struck himself recently and Morris says that he needs a rest.

Jockey Odom is expected at New Orleans today from his home in Georgia. He will ride for W. Karkick.

Albert Simons last Thursday sold Moor to S. C. Hildreth. Terms private.

THE KING'S HORSES.

King Edward's stud, including the thoroughbred stallions, broodmares, foals, horses in training and last year's Grand National winner, Ambush II., make the grand total of forty-seven animals. It is a formidable array to be trained and groomed, and its extent is perhaps not so well known to lovers of horseflesh in the outside world. Other studs outnumber this interesting bunch, but nowhere is there to be had bluer blood or stock that has contributed so much to the success of the English turf at the present hour.

Just now the royal stable is divided into three sections. Ambush II., with a special trainer and a couple of trial horses, is at the Curragh of Kildare in Ireland, undergoing rough winter work for the early spring steeplechase events; the horses in training, numbering eighteen, are with Richard Marsh at Egerton House, Newmarket. Here also are the three top-notch stallions, Persimmon, Diamond Jubilee and Florizel II., which, curiously enough, are brothers, located at the Heath Stud Farm. The foals, to the number of ten, and brood mares, sixteen, are at Sandringham stud. There has been some weeding out in the training material, leaving only one three-year-old filly, Nadejda, a remnant of the Perdita stock, and an own sister to his majesty's Derby winners. She figures in the £10,000 events next year. This filly is the last of Perdita II.'s nine foals.

Seven of the two-year-olds at Egerton House are all by Persimmon, Mead being the only winner. In the nine approaching two-year-olds there is more variety, as the following list will show. One, Ortolan, is by Orme:

Of this list all the two-year-olds have faced the starter's flag except the unnamed colt from Sweet Muscat, Email and Plumassier. Richard Marsh will have ten foals to take charge of next year. With the exception of La Paix, a brown filly by Persimmon, they have not yet been christened. The breeding stud at Sandringham now comprises the following list:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Word comes from Nashville that Savable, the Futurity winner, will be declared out of Tennessee's most important event, the Tennessee Derby, that is decided at Memphis each spring. This race is more valuable than Kentucky's most important event, the Kentucky Derby, and is more of a championship race, as there are no penalties or allowances in the Tennessee Derby, and this spring it will be worth about $8,000 to the winner.

To win this Tennessee event would make Savable carry 127 pounds in the American Derby. Of course, Mr. Drake, being a Chicago man, would rather win the Chicago event, even if worth less, than the Tennessee Derby.

Many good ones that were eligible to this race have been declared out of it January 1, to be reserved for more valuable events, yet no truer test is there than this same Tennessee Derby that is made for the best—a gift to a real champion.

But all the owners of promising coming three-year-olds seem to have their heart set on winning the American Derby. Of course it is worth a good deal more than the Memphis event, but it may not be so easy to win. There is an idea among some of the trainers that horses prepared for these early events are injured, and are not good horses later on. Yet the past does not prove this to be a fact.

The great horse McChesney will probably be seen in the east next year. H. M. Tichenor, the wealthy Chicago horse fancier and owner, has offered Durnell & Herz $30,000 for the horse.

It is the intention of Mr. Tichenor to enter McChesney in the Metropolitan, Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. As Durnell, ruled out in France, is debarré from the Jockey Club tracks, McChesney cannot race there unless the property of another owner—a fact which is tending to facilitate the consummation of the sale.

Should the Chicago millionaire secure the great horse he will also be a ready party to a special match between McChesney and Hermis on one of the metropolitan tracks. Carrying 128 pounds he ran the first eighth of the mile of the Christmas Handicap in 11 seconds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Skain, administrator for the estate of the late Lexington, Ky., turfman, James Murphy, has learned that the race horse Fred Ackerman was sold by Murphy to Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., of New York, for $1,000 cash last summer. H. D. McIntyre, secretary of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, furnished Skain with this information. The horse was missed by Skain and he did not know what had become of him.

Jockey Clem Jenkins, who has been riding abroad for the last two seasons, will come back to this country early in the spring and expects to ride here throughout the season of 1903. He has not signed a contract as yet with an American owner and is still undecided what stable's colors he will wear. Jenkins did not have the best luck in the saddle on the other side, although he rode a number of winners when he first went to England.

Top Gallant, nineteen years old, by Sterling—Sea Mark, by Adventure, died at Willamette Stud several weeks ago. He was owned by J. B. Ewing. Top Gallant was imported in Canada several years ago and stood in New Jersey and Tennessee before going to Kentucky. He was the sire of such good performers as Sidney Lucas, Algol, Typhoon II, Topsoil and Onatas.

John E. Madden has just concluded negotiations for the sale of twenty broodmares. Thomas Hitchcock is the purchaser and the band of matrons will be shipped to his stud at Aiken, S. C., about the end of this week from Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Herz says there is no truth in the rumor that he will ship his horses to Memphis, but he will shortly send Lucien Appleby, Prince Blazes, and Rolling Boer to the Scoggan farm, near Louisville, to be fired and turned out.

Jockey Donegan, who is riding at New Orleans, is the little Brooklyn boy who was nearly killed by a fall from a horse at St. Louis last spring. He hovered between life and death for six weeks, but resumed riding in the fall.

Cambrian did not completely break down at New Orleans in the Christmas Handicap. He wrenched one of his fore ankles so badly that he will be put out of training until the spring meetings.

Winner—Ch. m. by Masetto—Miss Rye (trained by F. Kector).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Eva Rice began slowly and worked her way through in the run down the backstretch, caught Lord Pepper tiring in the stretch run and was going away at the end. Lord Pepper ran the best race he has shown at the meeting. Montanic began slowly, closed a big gap and just managed to last long enough to stall off Alfred C. The latter was crowded back while rounding the far turn, came wide into the home-stretch and finishing strongly would have been third in another stride. El Rey quit when called on. Tillo was out in his previous race and was in no fit condition to go to the post.

Winner—Br. c. by Kinglike—Pantomime (trained by C. E. Durnell).
Went to post at 2:36. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Playlike ran to his best form and Redfern adopted hustling tactics and got off well. Playlike had barely speed enough and had to be hustled along at the end to stall off Ed L. The latter had to go all around his field to get up and fought it out with Andes all through the last quarter and outgamed him in a hard drive. Andes was in a pocket in the last quarter. Allyar was under restraint for the first half, but tired when Winkfield called on him and may have been short. Pyrrho was out off at the far turn and fell back, interfering with Optional. Tom Kingsley was off tangled up and was not persevered with.

Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Scotch Plaid was outrun for the first six furlongs, but came to the outside at the turn into the homestretch and outgamed Potente when it came to a drive. Buchanan had Potente under restraint for the first half, made up a lot of ground while rounding the far turn and put up a weak finish when it came to a drive. Honolulu showed the most early speed, but tired after going six furlongs. Sarilla went well for six furlongs only.

Went to post at 3:37. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Wealth displayed a great flight of speed all the way and opened up a winning gap in the first quarter, but had to be hustled along at the end to stall off Golden Rule. The latter finished gamely under a drive, was wearing Wealth down and would have won in a few more strides. Federal was under a drive all through the last quarter and Vandusen outdressed Treanor when it came to a finish. Nitrate was cut off at the first turn and ran a good race. The time is a new track record.

Winner—B. f. by Atheling—Galliana (trained by F. M. Kelly).
Went to post at 4:08. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Athlana raced Pride of Galore to defeat in the first half, but was doing her best at the end to stall off a strong challenge from Harry. The latter finished very fast, was wearing Athlana down and would have beaten her out in two more strides. Helgesen hustled Pride of Galore along all the way. He showed a good turn of early speed, but tired in the stretch. The others were outclassed.

Winner—Ch. g. by Tom Tom—Spring Spray (trained by L. B. Kahn).
Went to post at 4:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gin Spray, previously apparently beaten, came again at the end and got up in the last stride. Murphy outdressed Haack when it came to a finish. Brief displayed much speed, which was excessively wasted by her effort to set a fast pace for the first mile and a half, and she tired when called on for a final effort. Irving Mayor was easily the best of the others. They were back ones back of the first two.

Lady Midas began slowly and was pinched off at the six furlongs post, but came fast in the run home and caught Orris Goan in the final stride. The latter ran a good race, but tired slightly when the pinch came. Dalesworth showed a flash.

Belle Barnard had a stormy journey, but closed up fast in the stretch run and caught Dr. Carr in the final strides. Dr. Carr was taken the overland route, losing ground. Frank Kesinger quit badly when the pinch came.

Winner—Ch. m., by Brandywine—Laura Keane (trained by C. Pleasant).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Aunt Polly beat the barrier, led throughout, made a wide stretch turn and won going away. Saintly was always prominent, but was tiring right at the end. Claudator secured a lucky start, but was crowded early, then came fast at the end after saving ground on the stretch turn. Ben Magen went hopelessly wide at the stretch turn, but was closing up fast on his own courage. Mission is very good, closed a big gap from a bad start and was probably best. Rey Hooker failed to stay. Marelio, favored by the going, ran in improved form. Skip Me and Sam Lazarus Esq. were practically left owing to a collision at the start.

Winner—B. c., by Stuyvesant—Katie A. (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Stuyve secured a lucky start, attended the pacemaker closely and forged to the front in the stretch and won going away. Quiz forced the pace to the stretch, held on gamely and about ran the best race of his career. Jarretiere d'Or, handicapped by the going, went extra well and can probably beat this kind on a fast track. Handpress was a good horse and in going to his special liking. Homage closed up ground throughout. Pope Leo went well. Silver Fizz was far outclassed. Muresca got away badly, but lacked speed and ran a very bad race.

Winner—Ch. f., by Balgowan—Parolee (trained by G. Covington).
Went to post at 2:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Sylvia Talbot leisurely assumed command on the far turn and, picking the outside best going, always held the field safe and was best. Claude, apparently outrun to the stretch, closed up very fast and is a greatly improved colt. Organdie was handicapped by the stiff going, but ran a fast and game race. Iredius forced the pace in the first part of the race and tired somewhat at the end after excessive early use in trying to outrun the winner and probably disliked the going.

Illuwa, well ridden and carefully reserved, easily held second place safe. Axminster was badly messed about and carried wide on the stretch turn, but finished fast under a weak ride. Galanthus, nearly left, raced into prominence in deep going and held on remarkably well. Ada N. was well up for six furlongs, but failed to stay.

Dr. Bernays got away badly, trailed to the stretch turn, where he closed up like a flash, won going away and was much the best. Illilouon practically forced the pace from the start and was caught napping right at the end, but ran a good race. Goldone, nearly left, finished with a rush. Chappie went well, but tired at the end. Parsifal, messed about and seriously interfered with at the half, ran a comparatively poor race in going just to his liking. Malaspina, away poorly, took the lead early and tired in the stretch.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lord Badge secured a lucky start, was skillfully and patiently reserved for six furlongs and when called on in the stretch he flashed to the front cantering and was much the best. The Fretter, hard held, waited on the pacemaker to the far turn where he took the lead only to be outstripped in the last quarter by the winner. Diderot ran a game race and, apparently beaten on the stretch turn, he came again fast at the end. Byronerdale fell away when the real racing began.
